

SFIFF 2017 Lifetime Achievement Award:

John Sayles and Maggie Renzi, N. Scott Momaday

2017 Santa Fe Independent Film Festival's Juried Awards:

- Best Narrative Feature: Pinsky directed by Amanda Lundquist
- Best Documentary Feature: For Ahkeem directed by Jeremy Levine, Landon Van Soest
- Best New Mexico Narrative Feature: Cortez directed by Cheryl Nichols
- Best New Mexico Documentary: O! Max Evans The First Thousand Years, A Film By Lorene Mills, Paul Barnes, and David Leach
- Audience Choice Best Documentary: The Shepherdess of the Glacier directed by Stanzin Dorjai, Christiane Mordelet
- Audience Choice Best Narrative Feature Film: Sami Blood directed by Amanda Kernell
- Best NM Narrative Short: Beth Is Not A Cat directed by Christopher Michael Roybal
- Best NM Documentary Short : The Mustached American of the Year directed by Anna Yeager and Peter Subaiya
- Best U.S. Narrative Short: DeKalb Elementary directed by Reed Van Dyk
- Best Int'l Narrative Short: Ostoja Will Move Your Piano directed by Sandra Mitrovic
- Best Documentary Short: The Forger directed by Samantha Stark, Alexandra Garcia, Pamela Duckerman
- Best Animated Short: Negative Space directed by Max Porter, Ru Kuwahata
- Best Experimental Short: In A Nutshell directed by Fabio Friedli
- Audience Choice Best Short: The Whole World directed by Julian Quintanilla